DESTINATION

Why Sicily?

Catania is an ancient port city on Sicily's east coast. It sits at the foot of Mt. Etna, an active volcano with trails leading up to the summit. The city's wide central square, Piazza del Duomo, features the whimsical Fontana dell'Elefante statue and richly decorated Catania Cathedral and you will find lots of History.

In the evening, restaurants and taverns by the sea offer exquisite fish dishes, the waterfront is crowded with people and the beaches welcome young and old alike. After taking a sunbath, spend the night feeling the rhythm of the latest hits while waiting for the dawn to give life to a new day.

From Sicily you can reach Malta by ferry, a well known scuba diving destination in Europe. This means that you can dive in 2 different places, while staying in Catania, since Malta is a day trip.

In Sicily you can also hike Mt. Etna – the tallest active volcano in Europe – as well as enjoying spectacular skydive!

Beaches, Skydiving, hiking, diving, culture and amazing nightlife...
Based on your travel style, this is the place to go!

TOP DIVE SITES IN SICILY

Capua – the wreck of an Italian merchant ship lies upright at a depth of 40 m. The ship was on her way to Libya carrying a cargo of weapons for the Italian soldiers. She was probably attacked by the British submarine and sank in 1945. The wreck is in pretty good condition and hosts many marine species such as eels, anthias and damselfish. It is possible to penetrate the wreck.

Location: Castellammare del Golfo

Type of dive: shore dive

Sea bed: sandy

Requirements: BSAC Sports Diver, PADI Advanced Open Water

Ferdinanda – this is a dive spot one of a kind. Ferdinanda is a 400 m high submerged volcano. The peak is situated at a depth of 8 m. This area is teeming with life.

Location: off the southern coast of Sicily

Type of dive: boat dive

Sea bed: rocky

Requirements: BSAC Sports Diver, PADI Advanced Open Water

Grotta Azzurra – as the name suggests this is a spot for cave diving. This is a spectacular dive as the light effects are fantastic. There is also an abundance of shrimps, sponges and corals. The maximum depth is 20 m.

Location: Taormina

Type of dive: boat dive

Sea bed: sandy

Requirements: BSAC Ocean Diver, PADI Open Water

Kent – the wreck of a cargo ship lies at a depth of 50 m. The ship sank in 1973. The wreck gives shelter to many marine species. It is in pretty good condition and there are still many copies of Koran (that was her cargo) can still be found.

Location: between Palermo and Trapani

Type of dive: shore/boat dive

Sea bed: sandy/rocky

Requirements: BSAC Sports Diver, PADI Advanced Open Water

Marettimo – waters surrounding this island offer fantastic diving opportunities with great visibility. This area is teeming with marine life and it is common to see eels, amberjacks, sea breams, groupers, parrotfish and variouts types of crustaceans. There is also a beautiful underwater cave, La Cattedrale. It is 100 m long. The maximum depth is 30 m.

Location: Marettimo Island, Egadi Archipelago

Type of dive: boat dive

Sea bed: rocky

Requirements: BSAC Ocean Diver, PADI Open Water

Pavlos V – the wreck of a Greek tanker lies at a depth of 30 m. The ship sank in 1978 due to a fire that broke out in the engine room. The wreck is broken into two and both pieces are covered with marine life.

Location: Trapani

Type of dive: boat dive

Sea bed: sandy

Requirements: BSAC Ocean Diver, PADI Open Water

Punta Castagna – amazing scenery of this dive site thanks to a plateau covered with white pumice makes it a popular spot. Apart from the snow-white platform, there is also a vertical colourful wall covered with marine life. The area is teeming with life (groupers, sea fans, sea breams, etc.). The maximum depth is 40 m.

Location: Lipari, Aeolian Islands

Type of dive: boat dive

Requirements: BSAC Sports Diver, PADI Advanced Open Water

Scoglio Quaglietto – this spot is excellent for all levels of divers. The main attractions are the beautiful underwater rock formations: walls and a cave. There is even a statue of Madonna inside the cave. The maximum depth is 30 m. This zone is teeming with life.

Location: Vulcaon, Aeolian Islands

Type of dive: boat dive
